Letter: Turner knows her community

Jill Turner is running for Yountville Town Council. I cannot think of a more solid, intelligent and honest person I would want to be overseeing our town planning and future.

I have known Jill for several years. While some will say Jill is a newcomer to town politics, she has been a resident for 28 years and has witnessed the direction the town has taken over the years and is concerned about the future of its planning.

Being on the town's payroll or a board is not a prerequisite to being on the Town Council. In fact, I believe a new outlook and attitude will greatly enhance our existing Town Council. Jill is just the person we want!

Jill's background in business planning, marketing, advertising, public relations, real estate and project management are skills and knowledge that we need for the Town Council. By electing Jill to our Town Council, I believe you will find an intelligent, hardworking, honest person who will listen to you as a resident and will take your comments to heart. She wants to find the truthful answer to a question and will work to the bone to find it.

I endorse Jill Turner for Yountville Town Council. I hope you will join me in voting for Jill Turner.
